About the
“For The Heroes”
Song from
Joseph F.M. Pokorny and RyKy Records™...

“For The Heroes” [Listen], written and performed by Joseph Francis Michael Pokorny, and released on the “We The People” CD Album from RyKy Records™, is a tribute to unsung heroes, “those who put their lives on the line”, military personnel, veterans, police officers, firefighters, paramedics, emergency medical technicians, and emergency workers.

The song is an emotionally touching acknowledgement and remembrance of those who perform heroically – occupationally or humanistically – ‘Regardless the cost, No matter place or time’ for those in need of their help.

“For The Heroes” honors those who deserve our respect and admiration, yet are too often unrecognized or too soon forgotten.

Our generation – through the tragic events of September 11th, 2001; through wars in Iraq, Afghanistan, Vietnam, Korea, World War II, and other conflicts; and through the daily realities of fighting against fire, crime, health, safety, and security issues – has a heightened awareness of the selfless and critically-important contributions of people who literally come to our rescue.

This song seeks to help make sure that those individuals who have ‘made the Great Sacrifice’ remain in our hearts, their courage and love giving us the strength and hope to carry on and to fulfill their dreams of lasting peace... ‘Like angels, they are watching. Their memory lives forever. Their courage gives us strength to go on. Their love is a song in my heart!’

As individuals and as world citizens, we owe our heroes a debt of great gratitude... 'Now, we must do our part and carry the flame of hope! Yes, we must light the way, fulfill their dream!'

Pokorny, who lost many Father Judge High School (Philadelphia, PA) classmates and friends in the Vietnam War, was profoundly touched by the tragedies of September 11th, 2001 and the subsequent wars in Afghanistan and Iraq. In writing "For The Heroes", he was inspired by the courageous and heroic efforts of the many – often unrecognized or unknown – men and women who gave of themselves for the benefit of others.

The release of this song, and its inclusion in Pokorny's upcoming "The Obstacle Course Musical" (a musical based upon the self-help/inspirational novel, "The Obstacle Course", written by RyKy Records' co-founder Neal R. Voron), are ways that Pokorny is seeking to assure that we remember and cherish those who gave us so much.

As his lyrics gently, yet boldly, sing:

'Like angels, they are watching. They're there, beside us, always. Their courage gives us strength to go on. Their love is a song in my heart!'

The "We The People" Album, <http://www.WeThePeopleAlbum.com>, is the fourth album offered by Pokorny and RyKy Records™ – all since October 1st, 2003! The album is a celebration of freedom, dreams and aspirations, heroism, romance, and love.

"For The Heroes" is one of several songs on the album that are especially touching and timeless... The title song, "We The People" [Listen], is a patriotic song about freedom; "For Your Dreams" [Listen], is about a father's hopes for his son's dreams to come true; "Please Do Not Spam Me" [Listen] is a song about someone who does not want to receive spam e-mail anymore because 'I've got a life to live. It's time to live it! It doesn't revolve around you!'

“Somewhere In Life” [Listen], speaks of departure and the need for each of us to meet our destiny.

These five songs plus seven other titles make the “We The People” CD Album a very special collection of music.

Pokorny's songs from previously released albums include “Dream The American Dream” [Listen], “Please Do Not Call Me” [Listen], “We Stand United” [Listen], “Father” [Listen], and “Love Is” [Listen], and many others.

*This song is For The Heroes.
For all the unsung heroes.
For those who put their lives on the line,
Regardless the cost,
No matter place or time.*

*Like angels, they are watching.
Their memory lives forever.
Their courage gives us strength to go on.
Their love is a song in my heart!*

*Now, we must do our part
And carry the flame of hope!
Yes, we must light the way,
Fulfill their dream!*

*This song is For The Heroes.
For all the unsung heroes.
Each one has made the Great Sacrifice,
Regardless the price,
They strove for lasting peace.*
